

AHMC Corporate Team Participates at Arab Health 2014 Dubai, UAE -- January 27-30, 2014

WASHINGTON, D.C. - January 27, 2014 - American Hospital Management Company (AHMC) will be returning to Arab Health in 2014 to exhibit at the world's longest running healthcare exhibition and congress which will be celebrating its 39th year in existence. With an anticipated 153 countries represented and over 9,000 delegates in attendance, it is one of the most prominent Healthcare conferences in the world. AHMC's commitment and continued expansion in the region makes Arab Health the ideal forum for the U.S.A. based hospital management company to unveil its rebranding efforts, showcase its revamped service line as well as maximize opportunities to forge new relationships and strengthen existing bonds with clients and strategic partners in the region.

AHMC will be exhibiting in booth PZD18 in the American Pavilion Annex at Arab Health. Due to the significance of this event AHMC will be sending its Washington, D.C. based corporate executive team to take part in the event. The team will be comprised of: Randall Arlett, Chief Executive Officer, Daniel Smigelski, Executive Vice President, Greg Kuntz, Regional Vice President, Ralph Foster II, Vice President Corporate Development, Alexis Lauren, Director Human Resources, and William Kaafarani, International Account Executive, Tess Bower, International Marketing Specialist.

Arab Health is the most prominent event of the year for AHMC as it builds on inroads established in the region over the last few years. The demand for U.S.A healthcare expertise is highly regarded in the region and as a result the demand for AHMC's management model which is based on American healthcare management, operational and quality standards has been growing exponentially in recent years. Earlier this month AHMC announced the opening of its new regional office in Dubai which will enhance AHMC's responsiveness to the needs of its clients and strategic partners in this region of the world.

AHMC is committed to delivering innovative turnkey solutions that are tailored to the unique needs of our clients and strategic partners in the region. Arab Health is the ideal platform for strengthen existing relationships as well as maximize opportunities to forge new ones. We are dedicated to delivering integrated management services that are tailored to the unique needs of our clients, it is therefore essential for us to attend Arab Health as part of our long-term commitment to the region," said Ralph Foster II, AHMC's Vice President Corporate Development.
