AHMC to Exhibit at Arab Health in Dubai, U.A.E. the Week of January 28-31, 2013

WASHINGTON, D.C. - January 29, 2013 - American Hospital Management Company (AHMC) will be returning to Arab Health in 2013 to exhibit at the world's longest running healthcare exhibition and congress which will be celebrating its 38th year in existence. With an anticipated 142 countries represented and over 7,000 delegates in attendance, it is one of the most prominent Healthcare conferences in the world. AHMC's commitment and continued expansion in the region makes Arab Health the ideal forum for the U.S.A. based hospital management company to unveil its rebranding efforts, showcase its revamped service line as well as maximize opportunities to forge new relationships and strengthen existing bonds with clients and strategic partners in the region.

AHMC will be exhibiting in booth PZD18 in the American Pavilion Annex at Arab Health. Due to the significance of this event AHMC will be sending its Washington, D.C. based corporate executive team to take part in the event. The team will be comprised of: Randall Arlett, Chief Executive Officer, Daniel Smigelski, Executive Vice President, Greg Kuntz, Regional Vice President and Ralph Foster II, Vice President Corporate Development.

The event is the ideal platform for AHMC to officially unveil and promote rebranding efforts that include the development of new marketing collateral, website and social media, as well the expansion of its service line. AHMC has expanded its portfolio of specialized services to include: Joint Commission Intentional (JCI) Accreditation Consulting, Medical Tourism Consulting, Pre-Feasibility Studies and Gap Analyses. AHMC's has responded to the increased demand for U.S.A. healthcare management practices and hospital quality accreditation standards, by dedicating the necessary resources and expanding its base of operations in the region. In order to reinforce these efforts, AHMC will forge new accords as well as reinforce alliances with existing clients and strategic partners in the region.

AHMC has dedicated significant resources to strengthen its positioning in the market, enhance its operational capabilities, and diversify its scope of services in order to reinforce the expansion of its hospital network in the region. "AHMC's focused approach strengthens our efforts to deliver integrated management services and total solutions that are tailored to the unique needs of our clients in the region," said Ralph Foster, AHMC's Vice President Corporate Development.
