FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

AHMC TO EXHIBIT AND PRESENT AT THE MED 2020 FORUM IN MUSCAT, OMAN OCTOBER 26 AND 27, 2014

Washington, DC – October 15, 2014- American Hospital Management Company (AHMC) will be attending and presenting at Oman’s first ever Med 2020 Forum in the capital city of Muscat. The two day forum will commence on October 26th at the Intercontinental Hotel, and will showcase global innovations in medicine and provide a platform within the MENA region to share and discuss medical knowledge and technology to better improve the health of its residents.

AHMC’s CEO, Randall Arlett, Vice President of Business Development, Ralph Foster II, and International Marketing Representative, Tess Bower will be attending this year’s forum. Mr. Arlett will join the Med 2020 team of presenters to discuss private healthcare opportunities in the GCC Region. AHMC has been active in the GCC since 2011 and involved in multiple projects across the region and MENA. Most recently AHMC has added Dr. Bakhsh Hospital in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia and Dr. Noor Mohammed Khan General Hospital in Hafar Al-Batin, Saudi Arabia to its network of healthcare facilities in the GCC.

The theme of this year’s Forum is “Transforming the Future of Medicine for Superior Healthcare Outcomes in the MENA Region” and is organized by WJ Towell and Menacare. AHMC and WJ Towell signed a Memorandum of Understanding in January 2014 at the Arab Health conference to partner in bringing world-class hospitals and hospital management to the Sultanate of Oman.

“The private healthcare market in the GCC and MENA regions hold tremendous opportunities for growth and medical advancements. Because of our knowledge and experience in the GCC, AHMC has a deep understanding of the healthcare needs of its people. AHMC is committed to bringing world-class healthcare to the hospitals in the region. ” stated Mr. Arlett.
